

Dr. Malgorzata Korbin

Plant Genetics & Breeding • Molecular Biotechnology • Fruit Crops

About

Malgorzata Korbin is a retired senior scientist and former Director of the Research Institute of Horticultural Sciences in Skierniewice, Poland, with extensive expertise in plant genetics and breeding supported by molecular and biotechnological methods.

Quick Facts

Scientific Expertise

Plant genetics and breeding supported by molecular and biotechnology methods

Affiliation

Research Institute of Horticultural Sciences, Skierniewice, Poland (Former Director)

Languages

- Polish (Native)
- English
- Russian (Elementary)

Contact

✉ malgorzata.korbin@gmail.com

Mentor Availability

- ✓ Flash Mentor
- ✓ Short-Term Mentor (1 to 3 months)

ISHS Experience

- ISHS Member
-

Crop Expertise

Fruit plants

International Experience

Europe - Poland

Personal Statement

Retired senior scientist, former leader of the Unconventional Breeding Methods Group and director of the Institute. Interested in mentoring on research planning, presentations, manuscripts, grants and scientific networking.

Areas in Which Malgorzata Can Mentor

- Research planning support
 - Reviewing oral presentations
 - Manuscripts and grants
 - Scientific networking
 - Connections with horticultural institutions
-

ISHS Mentoring Programme

Connecting experience with the next generation of horticultural scientists